

Data Protection Policy

How we use your details

Your contact information is held by us because you have attended a previous Outsights event or provided your details (eg business card) to us in the past.

Your details will not be disclosed outside our organisation and are handled in accordance with The Data Protection Act (1998).

If you do not want us to contact you in future about Outsights events and would like your details removed from our database, please email lisa@outsights.co.uk.